Co-education is given priority in respect of gender equality in the trust deed of the institute. Admission merit is prepared keeping co-education in mind. A ratio of 50 % Girls and 50 % Boys maintained at the time of admission to each subject included in the curriculum. Hostel accommodation is compulsory for Girls and Boys. Both have different hostel arrangements of the same type with full security. In terms of arrangement, kitchens of Girls and Boys are different but they have the same food menu and quality of food. Girls and Boys have to wear pure khadi clothes compulsorily, in which only the choice of colour is given.

All the on-campus and off-campus events during the year are organized with gender equality in mind. Girls can participate with Boys in cultural activities/play gender-equivalent roles. To celebrate the feeling of brotherly love, A grand program of Rakshabandhan is held. In which communal rakhi bonding and management is done by Girls and Boys. The entire programme is anchored by Girls. With the participation of the students in different department and activities, boys and girls are given equal opportunities. Due to this program, Boys and Girls relations transforms into brother and sister.

In every hostel, the Rector takes care of the students, counsels the student through dialogue with their parents if necessary. For this, a committee of rector known as a Gruhpati mandal holds a meeting on every Saturday to discuss a necessary things, concern and issues to be addressed.

INSTITUTIONAL VALUES AND BEST PRACTICES

7.1 - Institutional Values and Social Responsibilities

7.1.1 - Measures initiated by the Institution for the promotion of gender equity during the year

Co-education is given priority in respect of gender equality in the trust deed of the institute. Admission merit is prepared keeping co-education in mind. A ratio of 50 % Girls and 50 % Boys maintained at the time of admission to each subject included in the curriculum. Hostel accommodation is compulsory for Girls and Boys. Both have different hostel arrangements of the same type with full security. In terms of arrangement, kitchens of Girls and Boys are different but they have the same food menu and quality of food. Girls and Boys have to wear pure khadi clothes compulsorily, in which only the choice of colour is given.

All the on-campus and off-campus events during the year are organized with gender equality in mind. Girls can participate with Boys in cultural activities/play gender-equivalent roles. To celebrate the feeling of brotherly love, A grand program of Rakshabandhan is held. In which communal rakhi bonding and management is done by Girls and Boys. The entire programme is anchored by Girls. With the participation of the students in different department and activities, boys and girls are given equal opportunities. Due to this program, Boys and Girls relations transforms into brother and sister.

In every hostel, the Rector takes care of the students, counsels the student through dialogue with their parents if necessary. For this, a committee of rector known as a Gruhpati mandal holds a meeting on every Saturday to discuss a necessary things, concern and issues to be addressed.

7.2 - Best Practices

7.2.1 - Provide the weblink on the Institutional website regarding the Best practices as per the prescribed format of NAAC

<https://lokbharatilokseva.org/upload/iqac/Best-Practices.pdf>

- As a residential institution, all the teaching, supporting staff and students are residing on the campus 24X7. Due to this, interaction between the faculties, students and others is made easy.
- Our students' participation in the Hostel, educational programmes, off campus programmes, Internship, festival celebrations etc. are more useful to them. On public holidays we celebrate all festivals with their ethics and cultural values in the context of Indian culture.
- We provide platforms to every student to express their different abilities in assembly twice in a week.
- A healthy and humanistic approach in our institution is our strength.
- Students are also allowed to keep their views and suggestions in our institutional programmes and other matters related to them.
- Every Year we organize a Jivan Vidya Shibir which is more effective in overall development and value education for the students.

7.3.2 - Plan of action for the next academic year

1. Relieved from the dark and dreadful atmosphere of covid-19, we have now full focus on the hybrid mode of the learning resources . so , we plan to initiate symposium and conferences in online and off-line mode to grow up our work of extention and consulstancy to the villagers.
2. Adequate planning and schedule have been made to settle all the pending academic activites and programmes.
3. we plan to re-start own off-campus programming with full attention of Covid-19 guidelines.
4. In B.voc students are having good and fair exposure to the various vocational institutes so, we plan to have a symposium on the career start up initiatives and the syllabus designing as well .

5. We plan to restructure and re-design own off-campus programmes such as deprived area study camp, educational tour, village camp and farmer's home stay programmes.
6. Alumni students have supported us to organize the alumni students meet. so we are in process to re-shuffle the database of alumni students and plan to felicitate the success and achievements of the former students. We shall have one or two alumni students meet in coming years, which shall not only inspire the present student but also provide built up a sound relationship with the institutional stake holders and the alumni students.
7. More emphasis will be laid on the minor research project and reserch-oriented activities.
